

Acknowledgement and Assumption of Risk and General Release of All Claims

Whereas, the undersigned is or will be a participant or a spectator in outdoor activities to be conducted on properties owned or operated by Prairie Wildlife Preserve; and

Whereas the undersigned, as an active participant in such outdoor activities represents to the owners that he or she is capable of recognizing and assuming all risks of the dangers normally inherent in outdoor activities, particularly those related to deer hunting, dove hunting, quail hunting, horseback riding, bird watching, and fishing; and

Whereas the undersigned is desirous of evidencing his or hers assumption of such risks and releasing the owners and any operators and employees of the hunting activities from any claims, known or unknown, demands, actions, and potential suits between them, based in whole or part upon any facts, conduct activities, transactions, events or occurrences, known or unknown, which have or allegedly have existed, occurred, happened, arisen, or transpired or which might arise or transpire from outdoor activities conducted on the properties of the owners.

NOW THEREFORE in consideration of the permission given by owners allowing the undersigned to participate in outdoor activities to be conducted on their properties and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and the undersigned hereby,

- (1) Acknowledges that the owners are not providing any services or supervision relating to the safety or protection of the persons participation in the conduct of the outdoor activities and further acknowledges and assumes those risks inherent in the conduct of outdoor activities, including but not limited to firearm accidents, off-road vehicle accident, on-road vehicle accident, horse accident, and other occurrences which may be reasonably anticipated by those participating in such outdoor activities; and
- (2) Release, acquits, remises and forever discharges owners and their agents, representatives, executors, affiliates, predecessors, successors, parents, assigns and any other related person or entitles of and form any and all claims, demands, rights, liabilities, losses, judgments, actions, causes of action, suits or liability of any kind or nature (including but not limited to attorneys fee and punitive damages) that have arisen or occurred or that may arise or occur any time in the future based in part or whole on any facts, conduct, activities, transactions, events or occurrences, known or unknown, arising out of any outdoor activities or other activities conducted in association therewith, including but not limited to all claims asserted or that could have been asserted arising there from.

This Release and Assumption of Risk shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with Mississippi law. It is intended to be complete release of all claims, known or unknown, arising from the undersigned's participation in hunting, fishing, horseback riding, bird watching or associated activities on properties of owners, and the undersigned is executing the same as such, with full knowledge.
